ORDER

During the course of the examination, it is observed that there are about 300 cases pending against this department before the APAT /A.P. High Court and whereas only one Asst Secretary is working in the officer cadre below the cadre of secretary in the department, who was burdened with heavy work. However, there is no officer in this department to monitor the court cases and to advice on the further course of action in these matters to contest before the Hon'ble Courts. Therefore, it is felt desirable to appoint a legal advisor to look after court cases including contempt cases pending before APAT & AP High Court against this Dept. Moreover this Department is having four state Public Sector undertakings besides the heads of Depts. Hence it is necessary to have a legal advisor on the same analogy of other Depts in Secretariat.
